

Letter from Cindy – September, 2024

What a wonderful journey life is! From Mother & Daughter tours to the evolution of Women With Wings I've had the honor of working with and traveling with many incredible women. Some stepping out solo for the first time in years, some fitting a quick trip in, some joining with family and/or friends and many, many repeat guests. We've had everything from a snow blizzard in Seattle on the inaugural tour, to rivers running dry in France forcing us to change locales at the last minute. Mexican Hijinx, Balinese dancing, the Taj at night, wine tasting in Mendoza, hiking in the Italian Alps, peeling back the layers of Georgia O'Keeffe, wandering the coastline of Portugal and exploring the cultures of Vietnam & Cambodia. Some active, some serene, all wonderful experiences thanks to our incredible team of leaders who have been with us from the start and who still find new ways to open doors and share their love of travel.

Now it's time for our own Hanne Sorensen to take over the reins and I can't think of a more perfect fit – Hanne is well travelled, organized, experienced and compassionate. She knows the business inside out and is ready in every way. Watch her thrive as she navigates this changing world that we live in and continues the WWW tradition of offering unique experiences around the world.

Thanks to my business partner Ellie Hender for keeping the faith, to Liz Irving for helping bringing WWW to life, to our leaders Ruth Payne, Jenn Hewlett, Colleen Wood & Estela Moreno de Dosil and to Hanne for moving us into the next stage. And thanks to every one of you who have shared your stories and traveled the world with us. What a gift you have been.

As for me, there is a paddle board waiting on the dock, slower travel ahead and more time with Mike and our family & friends. As one of you travelers said, 'you'll know when it's time'.
